what was clear to the original readers of scripture is not always clear to us because of the cultural distance between the biblical world and our contemporary setting we often bring modern western biases to the text for example when western readers hear paul exhorting women to dress modestly we automatically think in terms of sexual modesty but most women in that culture would never wear racy clothing the context suggests that paul is likely more concerned about economic modesty that christian women not flaunt their wealth through expensive clothes braided hair and gold jewelry some readers might assume that moses married below himself because his wife was a dark skinned cushite actually hebrews were the slave race not the cushites who were highly respected aaron and miriam probably thought moses was being presumptuous by marrying above himself western individualism leads us to assume that mary and joseph traveled alone to bethlehem what went without saying was that they were likely accompanied by a large entourage of extended family biblical scholars brandon o brien and randy richards shed light on the ways that western readers often misunderstand the cultural dynamics of the bible they identify nine key areas where modern westerners have significantly different assumptions about what might be going on in a text drawing on their own crosscultural experience in global mission o brien and richards show how better self awareness and understanding of cultural differences in language time and social mores allow us to see the bible in fresh and unexpected ways getting beyond our own cultural assumptions is increasingly important for being christians in our interconnected and globalized world learn to read scripture as a member of the global body of christ explanation of what the scripture means in light of the customs and conditions in bible lands there are illustrations and photographs to accompany the text scriptures are divided by subject including perplexing scriptures women garment peasant men home life clothing and jewels feasts fields tombs and tents gates and trades this book will approach the reformation from the perspective on last year's spring harvest theme one in christ and therefore look not at how or why the church split or whether the church should have split but from the perspective that the church cannot split because it is christ's one body from this basis the book will explore themes of christianity such as the church attitude to scripture and faith belief grace and works seeking wisdom from each of the incarnations of the church that resulted from the disagreements of the sixteenth century what might reconciliation and forgiveness mean in relation to various forms of personal structural and historical violence across the african continent this volume of essays seeks to engage these complex and contested ethical issues from three different disciplinary perspectives biblical studies systematic theology and practical theology each of the authors reflects on aspects of reconciliation forgiveness and violence from within their respective african contexts they do so by employing the tools and resources of their respective disciplines the end result is a rich and textured set of interdisciplinary theological insights that will help the reader to navigate these issues with a greater measure of understanding and a broader perspective than what a single approach might offer what is particularly encouraging is that the chapters represent research from established scholars in their fields recent phd graduates and current phd students this is the first book to be published under the auspices of the unit for reconciliation and justice in the beyers naudé centre for public theology in trying to rectify the agnostic scientist in me with the obsessive compulsive christian i had to confront my entire existence religion had permeated my life to the point where i rebelled against every social and religious norm if i was ever going to believe in god what attributes must i possess my science brain ushered me into the bible from a historical and archaeological perspective i craved proper epistemology in answering the god hypothesis if god was indeed real and he indeed spoke our universe into existence then it must be supernatural i began to focus on teaching tools employed by a creator from within the dimension of time i am trapped in if god indeed exists he must be outside of how humans experience time rivers became my classroom whenever life became chaotic and the waters were raging god directed me beside the great rivers in forty five countries spanning five continents the journey of a thousand miles for me began beside the delaware river and the brandywine river valleys in southeastern pennsylvania this entire book is about the mercy and grace of a loving creator on display in the life of his very stiff necked child the words are mine alone this is my story this is my song i pray the contents contained in my testimony may help one person going through a raging river episode in life to be still and know that god through jesus christ is in control you are loved by the living god i am old now my life is one of hard truths replacing the easy lies that permeated my existence for
